Trademark Counterfeiting & Piracy Training

Details:

This event is open to active law enforcement officials only and is free of charge.

This trademark counterfeiting and piracy training event is being sponsored by Crime Stoppers, The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, Investigative Consultants and numerous brand owners.

This event will bring together experts from law enforcement and the private industry to provide valuable information and training.

This will be a major event that will be well attended by both state and federal law enforcement officials from throughout the Western United States. Don't miss this chance to network with your fellow law enforcement officials!

There will be a host of law enforcement experts on hand, who will instruct the attendees about the methods of conducting trademark counterfeiting and piracy investigations. They will also discuss current trends that are being seen throughout the United States.

We will have many brand owners on hand, who will be instructing the attendees on the methods of identifying counterfeit goods. There will be a great cross section of goods discussed, including tobacco, music, video games, electronics, perfumes, luxury goods, household goods, golf clubs, software and much, much more!

There will be presentations that will address the topics of gangs and counterfeit goods, terrorist funding and how to dismantle entire criminal organizations and networks.

We will also have "reformed counterfeiter on hand, who will be available for one & one" interviews with the attendees, who can learn firsthand about the inner workings of the counterfeit underworld. You will not want to miss what this guy has to say!

The attendees will learn about the TRUE financial impact that these crimes have on our local and global economies. You will hear about how truly lucrative the sales of counterfeit goods can be and how a counterfeiter can make millions.

This training event is open to active law enforcement only and is POST approved. Space is limited for this event, so register today. We look forward to seeing you there. Don't miss out on this great opportunity!
